BIOGRAPHY

Bravenn Dehill, is known for his introspective lyrics, catchy melodies and variegated vocals. He's gained acclaim for blending multiple genres and sub-genres of hip hop, pop, R&B, dance, reggaeton and trap.

In February of 2021, Bravenn signed a record deal with ProducerLife Records, a subsidiary of ProducerLife, which is a global end-to-end platform that monetizes content for recording artists and record labels, founded by Tito Tahan.

Brandon Rivera (born February 19, 1999), better known by his stage name Bravenn Dehill, is an American musician, singer and songwriter from Lorain, OH. He graduated from Brookside High School in 2017.

Coming from a family of musicians, Bravenn is no stranger to music and is well invested with his natural talent for music. His uncle plays guitar in a local cover band, his mother and grandmother also both sang in the choir at the local Cornerstone United Methodist church, he also played the drums at his family church.
